

I urge you to not change Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. It has worked very well in reducing the number of calls received from several per night to one or two per month. We can finally sit down as a family and eat dinner without being interrupted by the phone.